DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

For Congress—3rd District,
BENJAMIN F. GRADY.

For Judge—6th District,
EDWIN T. BOYKIN.

For Solicitor—6th District,
OLIVER R. ALLEN.

CLINTON, N. C.,—OCT. 30, 1890.

The Asheville Citizen nominates W. Q. Gresham for Justice Miller's place on the Supreme bench, provided President Harrison will not appoint a Democrat.

The United States Express company has issued peremptory orders to all of its agents not to receive money, tickets or lists of drawings from the Louisiana lottery company, or in any way to assist in the transaction of lottery business.

The great humorist Bill Nye, in speaking of speaker Reed, says:—It is the great sorrow of a lifetime to know that in Maine, where the only true, deep and earnest dried apple pie of the great world was first discovered, there should arise a middle-aged czar with a knout in one hand and an ox-goad in the other, at the end of which is a sharp trade three fourths of an inch in length. Had I known that there, a great big coarse czar with blood in his eye and side whiskers on his front teeth, would be born, whose influence would be felt throughout Europe and as far back as Rome City, Ind., I would have hesitated in selecting Maine as a site for my own birthplace.

A recent issue of the Topeka (Kansas) Capital contained an unjust and uncalled for thrust at North Carolina, her schools, progress, etc. It boasted of the great and growing wealth of Kansas and the intelligence of the people of that great State, where they burn corn in the winter for the want of wood. The following from the Richmond State does not harmonize with the statements of the Capital:—

Kansas, Columbia's pride, is dying. She was once the one bright star of the entire west, but that star has now set—sunk into obscurity, leaving it a darkened land, where discontent stalks abroad over her boundless prairies, or more properly, sun-scorched desert, for of a truth it is the "Great American Desert." Kansas is to day struggling like drowning man who clutches at a straw. Topeka, her fair capital, is falling into a sleep that perhaps will know no waking. It is the solemn, awful truth, as every town and city in the entire commonwealth is gradually sinking to financial ruin.

If something is not done to check the tide of foreign immigrants that is pouring into our country, serious results are bound to follow. Our shores have become the dumping grounds of the paupers, cut throats and scape gallowases of Europe. It is true some good citizens come over, but the vast majority are worthless men, who didn't try to live at home, or are criminals who were not allowed to show themselves on the other side. If some restriction is not placed upon their coming, restriction ought at least to be placed upon their rights. There is no wisdom in reaching out our arms, and receiving into full citizenship ignorant and degraded foreigners who don't know the difference between the constitution of the United States and the Proverbs of Solomon. Many of the class of people that are coming over of late years were brought up from childhood in enmity to their government. In their infancy they were consecrated upon the shrines of Nihilism and Anarchy, and they cherish the same feelings for our government with all its liberties and privileges, as they cherish for their native lands and would rejoice to see it rent from center to circumference in order that they might flock to the spoils. They have never known what patriotism or love of country is, and never can. Their inherent hostility to all forms of government shuts out all such noble sentiments.

The Washington Post well says of them:—

They are mostly unskilled laborers, who come into competition with our own laborers under unequal conditions, and obtain a monopoly of digging, ditching, mining, and the cheap kinds of work. Most of them are illiterate, and a large percentage are on the verge of pauperism. They colonize by themselves in cities or mining districts, seldom acquiring our language, and showing no desire to obtain a knowledge of our institutions. They are often turbulent among themselves, and troublesome to their neighbors. As a rule they do not become an important factor in the problems of the future, and it is therefore worthy of serious consideration.

The bomb throwing at Chicago and the recent assassination of the chief of Police of New Orleans by a clan of murderous Italians are fair examples of the animus of some of these "citizens."

GRADY ON THE STUMP.

(Special Correspondence.)
Mr. Editor: The noble old county of Duplin has cause to be proud, and is justly proud, of this sterling democrat and distinguished citizen. As the able nominee and new democratic candidate for Congress from the third congressional district, he is winning bright laurels and golden opinions wherever he speaks in the various counties. His intercourse with the people shows that he is a gentleman of high moral, personal, and political character. No new member of Congress from North Carolina ever presented a purer and better record, more exemplary habits, a more stainless life or higher qualifications for saving his constituents and State in our National Congress. He has made, and is making a most vigorous and successful canvass of his district.

Mr. Grady spoke here to day to a large and appreciative crowd of thinking and sold men of Pender. He gave a masterly exposition of the origin and history of tariff legislation—showed its effects on domestic prices at home and abroad—how the farmers are robbed at both ends—when they buy as well as when they sell. He showed that the question of the tariff is the biggest issue before the country. He discussed the internal revenue, and national banking system, and the question of an income tax, with unsurpassed interest, freshness, and ability. He pleased highly his audience, and showed himself a thinker and a statesman, as well as a man of the people, with the people, and for the people. The democratic party of the District made a fortunate selection in nominating him for Congress.

"STAND TOGETHER."

The Concord Standard wisely says:—Most people are disposed to look upon the coming election as being of little importance to the people, and show such indifference that they have not thought of registering. We would just remind such that they are mistaken. The coming election is one of the most important that our people have ever had to take part in. The Democrats of the South cannot afford to remain idle. We have great interests to look after, and their protection is only guaranteed by the grand old Democratic party. The rights of the farmers, who compose such a vast majority of our people, have been overlooked until their labors have almost ceased to bring them a reward, and such a state of affairs, if allowed to remain, would soon bring our whole country over the yawning chasm of jeopardy. They have formed themselves into a great body, called the Farmers' Alliance, and they stand solid phalanx fighting for their rights as American citizens. The Democrats are standing by them and helping them in this great struggle. For the two to become divided means the death of both. Let every man remember this, and at the ballot box, in November, cast his vote for the Democratic nominees.

MR. RICHARDS' DREAM.

Mr. Richards of Atlanta visited Boston as a delegate to the great waterworks convention, where the superintendents and engineers of the craft had gathered from every respectable city in the union. It was about the time that Mr. Cleveland restored the rebel flags and Fairchild and Foraker and company raised such a howl about it. The president had to take them back and put them away in the old garret again. The bloody shirt was raised all over the North, and all the republican papers—screamed amazing, especially those in Boston. Nevertheless Boston gave a banquet to the watermen, and after the ladies had retired the gentlemen were called on for speeches and talks and stories. By and by Mr. Richards was called upon to say something for Georgia, for Atlanta, or for the South generally. He is a very modest man and tried to excuse himself, but as they pressed him, he said he wasn't feeling well and had a strange dream last night that troubled him, and he would be glad if some Joseph could be found who would interpret it.

Of course they clamored for his dream, and he said: "I dreamed that I was dead, and had found my way to the gate of heaven, and there was arrested by the guards and asked for credentials. In much confusion I examined my pockets and found a late copy of the Atlanta Constitution. The guards were dressed in blue uniforms, and, to my surprise, had guns in their hands. They looked at my paper and threw it aside with contempt. I tried again, and found the New York Tribune in blue with instructions to show me through heaven and bring me back in an hour, for I was a suspect. The place was beautiful beyond conception, and I forgot myself in a delirium of joy and wonder at what I saw. Everything and everybody was dressed in blue. There were thousands and thousands of them—freaking and sporting, and I observed that the favorite game was football, which was played with skulls. I supposed they were the skulls of lost sinners, but my guide informed me they were the skulls of the rebels that were killed in the late war. For the first time I began to realize that rebellion was the unpardonable sin and that I, too, was among the lost. Suddenly I heard the booming of cannon and the terrific explosion of masonry in the distance, and my guide, seeing my alarm, told me it was only a sham battle; that it was a favorite sport to fight over the great battles such as Gettysburg and Petersburg and Vicksburg and Fort Donelson. I inquired whether they ever fought the battles of Manassas and Chancellorsville and Gettysburg and the Battle of Bull Run. He replied that he thought not—he didn't remember any such battle. Strangely he added, 'I turned to my guide and said, 'My friend (tell me, 'this is the G. A. R. heaven—the heaven of the Grand Army; but St. Peter has a little annex over yonder. Grant is over there and Lincoln and Lee and Stonewall Jackson and many others. Grant was in here for a few days, but he kept on saying, 'boys, let us have peace,' and so we fired him out.'"

By this time we had returned to the gate and I said to the sentries: "Is there not another gate somewhere that I can enter and see St. Peter and Grant and Lee and Stonewall Jackson?" "Oh, you are for peace, too, are you?" said they, and with that they gave a kick and such a thrust in the side that it awakened me and to my great joy I found myself in the land of the living where peace may be sought and pardon found notwithstanding my rebellion. Now, my friends, please tell me where is Joseph?"

The newspaper men were there, of course. They saw the point and joined in the cheering, and many crowded around Mr. Richards and congratulated him and gave three cheers for the rebel who was ejected from heaven in a dream.

WATCHES ARE COMPASSES.

A few days ago I was standing by an American gentleman, when I expressed a wish to know which point was north. He at once pulled out his watch, looked at it, and pointed to the north. I asked him whether he had a compass attached to his watch. "All watches," he replied, "are compasses." Then he explained to me how this was. Point the hour hand to the sun and the south is exactly half way between the hour and the figure XII on the watch. For instance, suppose that it is 4 o'clock. Point the hand indicating 4 to the sun and if on the watch is exactly south. Suppose that it is 8 o'clock, point the hand indicating 8 to the sun, and the figure X on the watch is due south. My American friend was quite surprised that I did not know this. Thinking that very possibly I was ignorant of a thing that every one else knew, and happening to meet Mr. Stanley, I asked that eminent traveler whether he was aware of this simple mode of discovering the points of the compass. He said that he had never heard of it. I presume, therefore, that the world is in the same state of ignorance. Amal is proud of having been the home of the inventor of the compass. I do not know what town boasts of my American friend as a citizen.—Cor. London Truth.

Everybody knows scrofula to be a disease of the blood, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best remedy for all blood diseases.

Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or groin, humor in the eye, emulating partial or total blindness, yield to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every impurity from the blood.

Scrofula

"My little daughter's life was saved, as we believe, by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she was six months old she had 7 running scrofula sores. One physician advised the amputation of one of her fingers, to which we refused assent. When we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla, a marked improvement was noticed, and a continued use of her recovery was complete. And she is now, being seven years old, strong and healthy."

—If you will send men's sons to purgatory, Old Satan can count on a good crop of recruits by the time this election is over.
—Is there any man in your township who has been convicted of a felony crime? If so be sure to challenge his vote on the day of the election.
—A drunken rabble, hurrying for Beaman for Senator, disgraced the streets of Clinton on last Saturday. A few of the best negroes stood off and said that whiskey would not buy their votes.
—The merchant who advertises does the equivalent of sending a carriage to your door. He always has good goods, and he is not ashamed to ask the patronage of the people.—Durham Globe.
—Rev. J. M. Whaley, of Concord, N. C., held divine services in the Presbyterian church of this place last Sunday morning and night. His sermons were both strong scriptural expositions and were well received.
—Advertising is one of the admittedly great modern discoveries in the world of business, worthy to be ranked with steam and electricity for the transformations it has wrought in its own rightful realm.—Cahill.
—Shall the people be represented in the next Senate of North Carolina? Your votes will decide this on next Tuesday. See that every man who is a friend to the people goes to the polls and votes for the straight ticket.
—Our clever Register of Deeds, Mr. O. F. Herring, reports the matrimonial market lively. He has just given this office an order for 500 marriage licenses. Contracts are being closed and futures are steadily in demand.
—Mr. M. Hanstein, one of our Clothing dealers, in receipt of several letters from friends and business houses stating that the McKinley bill will put up the price of woolen goods at least 25 per cent next season. So much for Radical administration. Will the people vote to tolerate such?

—Shall the people, or the monopolists and money powers rule? This is the issue to be decided next Tuesday. It is an important struggle and your votes can only save the people's rights. Go to the polls early and fight like freemen. Let us by a big majority condemn those who dare to trifle with the liberties and rights of the people!
—Frank Thornton, of Fayetteville, is one of the leading dry goods merchants of North Carolina. He began business on small capital, and to-day has one of the largest and most fashionable houses in the State, with a trade not confined to this State. His success is largely due to advertising. Last week he had a whole page advertisement in THE CAUCASIAN and this week a full column. See what he offers.
—We understand that certain negroes who are supposed to be bought are riding over the county night and day trying to rally the colored people to vote for Beaman. Would these negroes do this if they were not bribed? Who is furnishing this money? Ye honest voter, think about it! We believe that there are a number of honest negroes who can not be bought, and who will not be dragged, driven or influenced by those who may have been bought.
—When a man goes to the primaries and casts his vote for his choice, he right there enters into a contract, though unwritten and which should be binding, it seems to us, upon any honorable man to stand by the decision of the majority. Every man who votes in the primaries is as much bound as the delegates to the convention, and if he does not support the ticket put out by that convention, he is a bolter and disorganizer and is an unsafe man to lead or be trusted to legislate for the people.
—Is the Alliance doing Sampson county any good? Every observant and unprejudiced mind is bound to admit that it is. It is benefiting the people—those who are not members in many ways too numerous to mention here. One of the most noticeable results is that there has not been as far as we know a single sale this year under a chattel mortgage. While in former years there have probably been fifty or more such sales every fall. Is not this a change for the better? Is not every honest man glad to see it? The people are learning to live more economically and to keep out of debt. The regular nominee for the Senate in this county has advocated the principles that has brought about this result; and this is why money is now being used with the hope of defeating him.

—Rev. Dr. Rumble, of Salisbury, preached an excellent sermon in the Presbyterian church here on last Monday night. His text was from Galatians—6th chapter and 17th verse—"From henceforth let no man trouble me; I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus." Dr. Rumble's discourse was a strong exposition of the hardships and sufferings—stonings and imprisonments, endured by the apostle Paul for the sake of Christianity. He bore in his body, said Dr. Rumble, the scars of stonings and shackles and chains, received at the hands of the enemies of the Christian religion, and these were the marks of the Lord Jesus, his master. All men today bear either the mark of Christ or the devil. Their actions and utterances show who they are as the brands of the West show whose the cattle on the plains are.
A Charming House.
Our enterprising and excellent townsman, Mr. A. F. Johnson, will soon have one of the most comfortable and complete homes in North Carolina. He has recently had his residence enlarged, and the finishing touches are now being put upon it by the most skilled workmen Mr. Johnson could command. The parlor and window facings are of native ash, handsomely worked, and when varnished will present a most pleasing appearance. The library is a thing of beauty. The door and window facings are of native white oak, and the mantel is of white oak worked in Richmond, Va. An elegant set of oaken furniture, made in Philadelphia, and including a handsome book-case filled with an excellent collection of standard works, adorns the library. The grain of the northern wood is not finer than that of the native, and the contrast shows that our woods have not been appreciated. Mr. Johnson has shown that our oak can be utilized to great advantage in this respect. The stairway is of oak also, and is a handsomely finished piece of work. The wood work of the second story is done in native pine and presents a fine appearance. The walls of the entire house are papered with the finest paper of the most popular designs, which looks much better than plastering. Water works have been put in the kitchen and pantry, and a bath-room with hot and cold baths is conveniently arranged. The parlor, bed-rooms and passages will be heated with a hot air furnace. All in all, Mr. Johnson will have a most desirable home, with all modern conveniences. A private telephone line runs from the house to the Carolina Vencer works, enabling Mr. Johnson to communicate his wishes to the superintendent without going out in disagreeable weather, or when indisposed.
Shall the People Win?
If the convention of September 10th that nominated Marion Butler for the Senate was irregular or illegal, then everything that that convention did was irregular and illegal. Therefore the bogus convention that met on October 6th should have (for the appearance at least of consistency) nominated a full ticket. Did it do it? No. Why? It is the opinion of a great many that the Railroad did not care to beat any body but Butler. That the Railroad were working to control the Senate of the next Legislature as it did the last. Everybody knows that the monopolists did not try to capture or buy up the Lower House of the last Legislature, but that they captured the Senate, as it was easier to do, having only fifty members. So again this year if the monopolists can capture twenty-six Senators, which is a majority of that body, then they have the whole State of North Carolina under their thumbs and the people are powerless. This happened two years ago and will happen again this year if the people do not rally to the polls and support the men who are fighting for their rights in the next Legislature. Bell and Pigford are true friends to the people, but they can do you no good if the monopolists capture the Senate. For no bill can become a law unless passed by both Houses. Go to the polls early and work all day! This is a fight against the people by the money power. The people must win!
Married.
At the residence of Mr. J. H. Royal, on the evening of the 23rd instant, Mr. E. M. Jackson was married to Miss V. J. Clifton, L. C. Hubbard, Esq., officiating. The following were the attendants: Mr. Henry Bizzell with Miss Hattie Moore; Mr. Ed. Barbrey with Miss Anna Belle Royal; Mr. Edw. Johnson with Miss Laura Turner; Mr. D. M. Partrick with Miss Rosalie Johnson; Mr. Manvill Pouchek with Miss Sallie Moore.
Reunion of First N. C. Battalion.
Col. E. D. Hall, of Wilmington, will deliver the address at the reunion of the survivors of the First North Carolina Battalion, at Magnolia, on the 6th of November. He will be glad to see as many of his old comrades in arms from Sampson as the reason can possibly attend.

"Consistency! Thou Art a Jewel!"
The kickers in this county claimed that the convention that met on the 10th of September and nominated a ticket was an "Alliance-Republican" convention. So they called a mass meeting and styled themselves the pure Democracy, the straight-out Democrats—so straight that they leaned backwards. At the same time there were a number of negroes in the hall who were invited in by some of those of the so-called "straight-out Democrats." These are the white men who have cursed the negro; these are the white men who have abused the white Republicans for voting with the negro and asking the negro for his vote. Yet from the day of that mass meeting till now these same white men have been hugging the negro for his vote, and when hugging would not do they have done something else. What is it? It is the opinion of a great many that it is money, that they have bribed the leading negroes and expect these to lead the others by the noses. Shall the rights of the people be thus bartered off? Shall the wishes and the best interests of the people be thus sold and trifled with at the behest of monopoly? Let the people answer with their votes on next Tuesday, the 4th day of November!
The Negroes Endorse Beaman.
A few weeks since the negro leaders declared in convention assembled in the town of Clinton that they were the Radical party and that they would no longer listen to white bosses. Everybody thought that this meant that they would nominate a full negro ticket. Their next step was when they went to Warsaw and nominated Scurluck, a negro, for Congress. This confirmed the belief. But when they met in county convention they did follow out their motto? They did not. But strange to say, they endorsed John A. Beaman, a man who claims to be nominated by the best Democrats of the county. A man who claims to be a better Democrat than Butler, who is the regular nominee. What caused them to do this? Was it money? We can't imagine any other logic that could have caused this summer suit. Now if the leaders are bought up will the rank and file of the colored people allow those negroes who may have gotten money to lead them by the nose and make them vote for Beaman? We don't believe they will. Those who are sensible and too honest to be bought, will either vote for Butler or will not vote at all.
Died.
James Kennan, aged one year and eleven months, and only son of Mr. R. C. Holmes, died on last Sunday evening after a painful illness of two weeks. He was a bright and promising child, the pride and delight of his parents, and death has fallen upon him as an untimely frost upon the brightest bud in all the field. On Monday evening at three o'clock his body was laid to rest in Clinton Cemetery. Rev. J. W. Turner conducting the burial services. The sympathy of the community goes out to the grief-stricken parents, and with the warmest of those sympathies are mingled our own.
Mr. Hanger Williams, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed and respected citizens of Duplin county, died at his home, near Warsaw, last Saturday evening. He had reached the ripe old age of ninety-five years, and was an uncle of Mr. R. J. Williams of this place. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. B. F. Marable on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.
Rev. Charles McAlpine, wife of Rev. Hugh McAlpine, died on the 21st inst. at Crainsville, Illinois. He leaves a number of relatives in this county.
Personals.
Mrs. Rowena Micks and Miss Rena Micks have returned to Goldsboro.
Rev. J. M. Whaley and wife, of Concord, and Rev. Dr. Rumble, of Salisbury, were in town this week, visiting Rev. Dr. Luther McKinnin.
Miss Cora Jerome has accepted a position with Mr. W. A. Johnson, in the Ladies' Dress Goods Department where she will be pleased to wait on her many friends.
Rev. Dr. B. F. Marable and Mr. Warren Johnson represented the Presbyterian church of Clinton at the meeting of the North Carolina Synod in Wilmington last week. Mr. Johnson tells us that the meeting was one of the most pleasant and interesting that he has ever attended. A great deal of work was done during the session. The Synod meets next in Durham.
Mr. T. J. McKoy is visiting his mother, Mrs. Judge McKoy. He is accompanied by his wife. For a number of years Mr. McKoy has been with the popular grocery house of Thurber, Whyland & Co., of New York, but he has recently accepted the position of General Traffic Manager of the Morrisstown and Cumberland Gap Railroad. Mr. McKoy is a gentleman of push and business and will make an efficient officer.
Hon. B. F. Grady was in town last week on his return from Moore, Cumberland and Harnett counties, where he has been addressing the people on the political issues of the day. He reports the prospects bright for Democracy in these counties. It was the earnest desire of Mr. Grady to address his fellow citizens of Sampson during the campaign, but appointments made for him in other counties prevented.

Mr. S. W. Barefoot who was stricken with paralysis on his way home from Dunn some time ago is not improving very much.
Corn shuckings are the go now. The Investigation trial between the Committee and the Board of Education and the patrons of District No. 23 white in Johnston county for employing M. Bell to teach for them again was quite interesting. Mr. Bell showed by the best men in the district and the county Superintendent that he discharged his duty and the blame was in the parents. The decision was in behalf of the committee and Mr. Bell.
Three persons were baptized at Warren's Mill on the 19th by the Rev. F. R. Underwoods.
Much excitement has prevailed in lower Johnston and upper Sampson over the news of the appearance of a bear at Mr. Blackman Jernigan.

Mr. John O. Culbreth was married to Miss Rebecca Boykin on last Thursday morning the 23rd at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. William Boykin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Culbreth, in Little Coharie township, where a delightful reception was given on Thursday evening.

That you have done your part for him is now a living witness, and I shall not hesitate to furnish your Remedy in any similar cases I may be called upon to treat. I am very truly, THOS. HILL, M. D.

ON THE GOING DOWN OF THE HUBS, WRACKED ON THE ROCKS JUST OFF LAYERS.

Above the lurid lightnings flashed And deafening thunders rolled, Around the raging billows crashed, And trembled solemn bold.

From out the blackness of the night No friendly beacon shone; Cloud rushed after cloud in flight, And hid the wailing moon.

Then came a crash that echoed round Far o'er the crested waves; Two hundred, in a moment, found Two hundred wat'ry graves.

Under the waves the mermaids sang Of early woe and sorrow; From every ocean cavern rang The sea-wraith's cry of woe.

The gentle souls turned away, And waded a wide of tears, For they had seen no sadder day, In many a year.

Angels looked, then quickly drew Their eyes from such a sight; Two hundred souls then upward flew To judgment, through the night.

The search came to port no more; They sleep beneath the waves, A legion four, in a moment, found Two hundred unknown graves.

But when the Judgment Day is come, They may from out the waters rise, And, in a stronger, nobler craft, Sail o'er the seas of Paradise.

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Week's Summary of Events at the Seat of Government.

Political Activity Among Government Clerks - License Cut Down - Rock Creek Park - No Extra Session.

The activity among the political clubs at the national capital is attracting much attention. Some thousands of voters are preparing to go home to vote at the coming elections in the different States, and the questions of assessments and undue influence as affected by the civil war are made the subject of much newspaper comment.

The District commissioners are giving hearings in opposition to the resolution to reduce the number of saloons in the District from 400 to 300. Messrs. Frank Mulligan and W. H. Shea appeared before the commissioners on behalf of the liquor sellers, and urged that with an increasing population and 700 saloons it was a backward movement to reduce the saloons to 400 as contemplated by the District commissioners. President Duggan suggested that 400 saloons in a population of 230,000 would be one saloon for every 575 inhabitants—men, women, and children—and he thought that would afford ample accommodation to those adults out of 570 who desired to drink at saloons. So far the commissioners are understood to be unanimous in favor of leaving the 400 rule unaltered, not as an inflexible bar to other licenses, but as indicating the policy of the District board. There will, however, be another hearing.

The Rock Creek Park commissioners, George C. Boynton, and Attorney Perry, with Secretary Langley, of the Smithsonian, and Engineer Russell, of the District Building, have made a personal survey of the section of Rock Creek margin on which the park is to be located. The park will embrace nearly 2,000 acres, and it is believed that it will be one of the finest in the world.

The question of an extra session of Congress has apparently been decided in the negative, although no authoritative declaration has yet been made by the President.

It is not thought that the seal industry can long withstand this slaughter, as the seals are killed without regard to age, sex, or breeding season.

It is said that the act of importation is most exact, and at prices excluding duties.

A Manly Card.

In reference to the breaking of his engagement with Miss Winnie Davis, the "daughter of the Confederacy," Mr. Alfred Wilkins, a carman in the Syracuse papers, stating that Miss Davis was not actuated by mercenary or political motives. He adds: "She broke her engagement with me for personal reasons, and she is reported to state. And it is ridiculous to suppose that political or financial reasons had anything to do with it. The imputation of any mercenary motive to her is false, and would be dignified by calling it unjust."
